

Cruden Farm

Saturday 12 November 2005

It was a beautiful spring day in Langwarrin to share with family and friends. The immaculately maintained grounds of Dame Elisabeth Murdoch's home, were a perfect setting for lunch and a relaxing walk around the gardens and lake. With an attendance of more than 800 visitors and entertainment from Judi Connelli, Suzanne Johnston and Peter Hurley, the fundraising day was a great success.

Volunteer Thank-you

We had many volunteers working on numerous tasks during the day, including; directing parking, serving tea and scones, serving drinks, cooking the barbeque, setting up all the signage, preparing the stage and sound equipment and making sure that the grounds were left tidy at the end of the day.

Thank-you

A special thank-you to our many volunteers who helped to make this day such a great success.
