

"Lest We Forget"

Friday 11th November 2005

One minute silence and the playing of "The Last Post" helped us to remember those that had given their life whilst serving their country. The service was lead by Sue Smith and attended by residents of Strathdon. Students from Parkmore Primary School also attended and read a poem "In Flanders Fields". All were given the opportunity to come forward and place a poppy on the Australian Flag.

A display table with poppies for each resident to place on the Australian Flag in remembrance of those who lost their lives.

A resident placing a poppy on the Australian Flag.

The Service was led by Sue Smith.

The Ode of Remembrance

"They shall grow not old. As we that are left grow old Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them".
They shall not grow old..."

from Ode to the Fallen
by O L Binyon

for complete poem on Australian Veterans web site